

THESE LOCAL PEOPLE ARE USING THEIR COUNCIL VOTES TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

FOR THE COMMUNITY IN MORETON AND LEASOWE

Read their stories to find out why...

Ian Lewis
Ex-Councillor for
Moreton and Leasowe

“ It’s five years since I was councillor for Leasowe and Moreton and, in that time, people have had five different Labour candidates.

Instead of fighting for residents on local issues, the local Labour Party are too busy fighting among themselves.

If you want a hard working, local candidate who puts local issues first, people need to vote for Debbie Caplin. It’s that simple.

“ I like the way Debbie keeps in touch with our community all year round and not just a few weeks before an election. It’s important that people who work for us keep in touch with us.

I enjoy reading her local Newslines of how she is supporting our local area and addressing issues, such as the problem of dog fouling around Sandbrook Primary School. Debbie will be getting my vote in the May Elections.

DID YOU KNOW?

1 In 2018, local Conservative councillors in this constituency submitted an average of 108 problems and issues for action by the Town Hall. Labour Councillors submitted an average of just 34. That means areas with local Conservative Councillors get a better service for the money they pay in Council Tax.

2 Debbie Caplin is visible in our community and works hard on the local issues that people raise with her. In the five years since Ian Lewis lost, our area has had four different Labour Councillors, now they want people to vote for a fifth!

3 This election is about who runs our local services, who gets our pot holes repaired, our bins emptied and street lights fixed. On 2nd May, the choice is between yet another Labour candidate who has popped up at election time or Debbie Caplin.

Turn over

The choice on 2nd May:

How people vote in the Council elections will decide whether Wirral has Militant-led Labour Party in control or a balanced council where all the parties, and all councillors, have to work together.

The last time Militant and a hard left, extreme Labour Party ran a local council was in Liverpool under Derek Hatton.

They scared away investors, jobs were lost, services declined and taxes went up for everyone.

Now, in Wirral, the same thing is about to happen here.

There are many traditional Labour voters who are appalled at what their party has become.

Respected people like Frank Field MP have been forced out.

Regardless of how you have voted in the past, this council election, this year, is different.

Only with your vote can we stop Wirral going down the Militant Liverpool road to ruin.

That's why your vote for Debbie Caplin in Moreton and Leasowe matters.

“ Debbie is working hard for the community with potholes repaired and litter cleared from our open spaces. This work takes place throughout the year not just election time.

I am a volunteer at Clatterbridge Cancer Centre and appreciate people who do their bit to help.

At a time when national politics has never had a worse reputation, it's important to keep those who do a good job for us locally.

“ Debbie has been working tirelessly to support residents since the last elections.

We like the way she gets stuck in and tries to get stuff sorted - the recent litter pick in our area really helped to tidy the place up.

That's the kind of councillors we need - people who are working with us all the time, not just turning up at election time! We're backing Debbie to be our next councillor.

“ Debbie Caplin is a good, local campaigner. She can't solve every problem, but I know she always tries her best.

I work in the NHS and the people who really make a difference are those who are passionate about what they do. It's the same in the Council and that's why we need Debbie working for us.

It doesn't matter how you vote in a General Election, the council election is about who works hardest for you on local issues.
